2022 COSAF A CUP

FEDERACAO ANGOLANA DE FUTEBOL

President: Artur de Almeida e Silva

Website: www.faf.co.ao

Established: 1979

Affiliated to FIFA: 1980

Affiliated to CAF: 1980

Honours: 1999, 2001, 2004 COSAFA Cup winners

BRIEF HISTORY

Angola have won the COSAFA Cup on three occasions but were the first team to reach that mark and so were awarded the original trophy on a permanent basis as recognition of their feat.

They have not managed to add to their tally since and are behind all-time leading winners Zimbabwe (six titles), Zambia (five) and Zimbabwe and South Africa (five).

They also became only the second COSAFA member after South Africa to qualify for the FIFA World Cup finals, representing Africa at the 2006 event in Germany.

'Palancas Negras' first won the trophy in 1999, when the COSAFA Cup was played as a knockout tournament for the first time.

They beat Namibia 2-1 on aggregate in the final over two legs and then repeated the feat in 2001 when they overcame Zimbabwe.

In 2004 they got to keep the trophy after beating Zambia in the final in Lusaka, winning 5-4 on penalties after a goalless draw.

On all three occasions, Angola had to achieve their success away from home. The second leg of the 1999 final was played in Windhoek and Angola forced a 1-1 draw to take the title while in 2001 they scored a late winner in Harare to overcome Zimbabwe 1-0 on aggregate after a gritty battle in the final.

Angola are unbeaten at home in the COSAFA Cup, where they have played seven times in comparison to 36 assignments on the road.

They did not enter the first COSAFA Cup tournament in 1997 but have certainly since imposed their presence since.

They entered their national Under-20 team into the COSAFA Cup in 2008, 2009 and 2016, so as not to significantly disrupt their domestic League season.

They did not participate in the 2015 tournament in South Africa, and have also failed to appear in the last two championships in 2019 and 2021.
